GETS NORTH DAKOTA DELEGATES

Bryan Obtains Support of Delegation From That State.

WITHOUT DISSENTING VOICE

Resolutions Instructing Delegates to Denver Convention to Vote for Nebraskan Adopted by Democrats at Grand Forks.

Grand Forks, N. D., March 26.—After three hours of oratory the committee on resolutions of the North Dakota Democratic convention reported resolutions, the chief purpose of which was the indorsement of Bryan. The resolutions instructed the North Dakota delegates to the Denver convention to vote as a unit for Mr. Bryan.

After all the statements by Johnson men that an instructed delegation would be contested and that there would be a second choice candidate in the person of Governor Johnson, the fact that there was not a dissenting voice raised when a vote was called or caused surprise, even among the staunch Bryan men who, although they had all along said they had enough votes to carry through their resolutions, thought that possibly a test might be made.

Up to the time of assembling of the final session the Johnson men said they would introduce a second choice resolution, but it was not forthcoming. The resolutions with minor changes were as submitted by the committee and declared for Bryan in the following words:

Truest Type of American.

The Democracy of North Dakota, in convention assembled, believing that William Jennings Bryan represents the truest type of American citizenship and is the natural leader of the reform forces of the United States of America, be it therefore

Resolved, That the delegates from this convention to the national Democratic convention to be held at Denver be and they are hereby instructed to vote as a unit for the nomination of William Jennings Bryan for president of the United States.

A separate set of resolutions was unanimously adopted indorsing Governor Burke's administration.

Following the resolution William Collins of Bottineau was elected national committeeman.

Governor John Burke was chosen as delegate-at-large by acclamation. Delegates to the national convention were elected from each of the eight judicial districts of the state, except the Eighth, where Governor John Burke lives. As he was elected to represent the state at large, no delegate was chosen to represent his judicial district. John Bruger was elected as alternate for the Eighth district for Governor Burke.

The district delegates—First, David Gorham; Second, E. B. Page; Third, M. A. Hildreth; Fourth, P. H. Perry; Fifth, G. W. Swibel; Sixth, Frank Lish; Seventh, J. W. McLean.

Alternates—First, A. B. Lamb; Second, Marion Aldrich; Third, John Carmody; Fourth, Jens Peterson; Fifth, Albert Larson; Sixth, C. R. True; Seventh, Gus Brekke.

Presidential electors were chosen as follows: E. E. Cole, Cass county; John B. Fried, Stutsman county; Joseph Kelly, Ramsey county; Frank Mackey, McLean county.

The platform follows the lines of the Nebraska platform.

TO AVOID CAPTURE.

Slayer of Montana Sheriff Commits Suicide.

Billings, Mont., March 26.—Wearied by his attempts to evade the posse which surrounded him and which sought to avenge the murder of Sheriff James T. Webb, William C. Byckford evaded capture by firing a bullet into his brain. Jack Hereford of Billings and Deputy Sheriff Taylor of Musselshell approached the sheep wagon at the Rufus Thompson ranch where Byckford had been lying since daylight and found him dead with a bullet in his temple and a six-shooter in his hand. The rifle with which he had slain the sheriff lay at his side. But one shot had been fired from the revolver.

Before the time the body was found many of the posse had arrived and the camp wagon was surrounded by men. It was only after the long silence following the one shot fired that Hereford ventured to approach the wagon. No further shots greeted him and peering cautiously into the vehicle he saw Byckford lying dead on his back, his head in a pool of blood and his gun in his hand.

DIPLOMAT SURPRISED

D. J. Hill Cannot Understand Action of Germany.

KAISER TURNS HIM DOWN

German Government Informs State Department at Washington That It Will Not Receive Mr. Hill in Capacity of American Ambassador.

Paris, March 26.—David Jayne Hill, who arrived here from The Hague and went to the Hotel Regina, expressed the greatest surprise when informed that the German government had declined to receive him in the capacity of American ambassador to succeed Charlemagne Tower. He said that this was the first intimation he had of the German government's action, and he was at a loss to understand the announcement, especially because he personally saw an official communication from Germany to the government at Washington, expressing Germany's satisfaction over the ratification of the selection for that post by President Roosevelt.

Moreover, he said, on a recent visit to Berlin he did not hear anything that would lead him to believe that he was persona non grata to the German government, nor had he received the impression that the situation was different from that expressed in the official communication he read. President Roosevelt, he added, informed him that he intended to appoint him.

In the absence of official advices, Minister Hill declined further to discuss the matter.

The announcement of Germany's attitude toward Mr. Hill caused much surprise in French diplomatic circles.

KAISER REJECTS HIM.

Will Not Receive Dr. David Jayne Hill as Ambassador.

Washington, March 26.—The German government has declined to receive Dr. David Jayne Hill in the capacity of American ambassador to succeed Charlemagne Tower, whose resignation has been accepted to take effect upon the qualification of his successor. Dr. Hill is at present American minister to The Hague and was formerly first assistant secretary of state under the administration of Secretary Hay.

The objection to Dr. Hill is one purely personal to Emperor William, who has simply caused it to be made known that the American diplomat is persona non grata to him.

The reason for the emperor's objection is connected with the visit to America several years ago of his brother, Prince Henry, the ranking admiral of the German navy. Dr. Hill at that time was first assistant secretary of state and necessarily was brought into official contact with the distinguished foreign visitor. Just what he did or did not do to give offense is not known here.

EXCITED GREAT INTEREST

News That Fleet Would Encircle the Globe.

Magdalena Bay, March 26.—The news that the fleet was to continue its cruise after reaching San Francisco and complete the circumnavigation of the globe by way of Honolulu and Manila and the Suez canal, was received aboard the flagship Connecticut and at once transmitted to the commanding officers of the various battleships. The news excited the greatest interest and was the most absorbing topic of conversation since the fleet started from Hampton Roads.

Rear Admiral Thomas, who will be the senior rear admiral after Admiral Evans retires, commented briefly upon the great trip ahead.

"It can be easily accomplished by this fleet," he said. "In fact, it will be easier than the present cruise has been. While there are many long trips between stops, every one of our modern battleships is capable of carrying sufficient coal to take them, with some to spare. We shall have better coaling facilities at Honolulu, Samoa, Sydney and Cavite than we have had at the various places we have coaled on this trip."

"As I glance over it, no difficulties of moment present themselves. It is, of course, a cruise of tremendous length, making the one we are now on seem small by comparison. It would likely be the last of December before we would reach New York, although that is merely a guess. That would depend upon the number and length of stops we would make."

Honor For Noted Presbyterian. A monument is to be erected at Holden's Creek, Va., to the memory of Francis Makemie, who founded Presbyterianism in the United States in 1706 and was first moderator of the general presbytery.

London, March 26.—In the West London police court Magistrate Garrett sentenced Dr. Stanton Coit, the noted writer and lecturer, to one month's imprisonment for assault upon the conductor of an omnibus on which he was a passenger late at night. Dr. Coit denies the charge. He has been liberated pending an appeal.

Will Start for Valdez This Week.

San Francisco, March 26.—When the City of Pueblo sails this week the American will continue its race toward Paris. It will again take to the road at Valdez, Alaska. The second French car is coming on a freight train and will take the earliest boat to Valdez. The Italian machine, having been repaired in Ogdan, went by train to Kelton, where it broke down, and made a fresh start from there.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The condition of United States Senator Penrose, who is ill at his home in Philadelphia, is said to be slightly improved.

A dispatch from Trenton, S. C., Senator Tillman's home, states that the senator's condition is improving very slowly.

The Budweisers of St. Paul won the five-men event in the state tournament of the Minnesota Bowlers' association at St. Paul by a score of 2,789.

Baron Sternburg, the German ambassador, has accepted an invitation to address the Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce about the first of May.

There is a marked improvement in the condition of Representative James S. Sherman of New York, who is suffering from intestinal trouble at Garfield hospital, Washington, D. C.

ORDERED TO HAYTI.

Two More Warships Will Go to Port au Prince.

Washington, March 26.—Two additional war vessels were ordered to Hayti, following a conference of officials of the state and navy departments. As the Des Moines already had been sent to the scene of the recent outbreak, which endangered the lives of foreigners on the island, the United States will be represented by three war vessels in Haytian waters. The two vessels dispatched are the gunboats Marietta and Paducah, both of which have been at Guantanamo, Cuba, preparing for target practice. The exact nature of the disquieting news from Hayti, the receipt of which brought about the latest precautionary steps, was not disclosed by the state department.

HELD UP AND ROBBED.

Illinois Banker Loses Large Sum to Highwaymen.

Wichita, Kan., March 26.—Fire originating in the Miltner Elevator company's building threatened the entire wholesale district north of Douglas avenue here. The flames spread to the adjoining lumber yard of the Western planing mill and consumed half the contents. The east side of the block was ruined. Loss, $100,000.

Finds Baker Was Poisoned. Hackensack, N. J., March 26.—The coroner's jury in the inquest on the death of Walter Farnsworth Baker, which occurred at Bogota, N. J., on Oct. 27, 1907, has returned a verdict that Baker died from arsenical poisoning administered by some person or persons unknown to the jury.

STEVENS IS DEAD.

Diplomat Who Was Shot by a Korean Succumbs to His Wounds.

San Francisco, March 26.—Durham W. Stevens, the foreign advisor to the Korean government, who was shot by a Korean Monday, died a few minutes after recovery from the anaesthetic administered when an operation was performed.

HEAD CUT FROM BODY.

Cleveland, March 26.—Morris Wiseman, a push cart peddler, was struck by a street car and instantly killed. The car ran over the man, cutting his head from his body. The head rolled from the car tracks to the gutter.

"BUNNY" OLSON DEAD

Popular Southeast Brainerd Young Man Died in Spokane This Morning

After a Few Days Illness

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olson, 1420 Pine street, received a telegram this morning bringing the sad and unexpected news of the death of their son Bernhart at Spokane this morning. They received a letter from him yesterday, written Saturday, saying that he was suffering with a slight cold, and it is thought that it must have developed into pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Olson will leave for Spokane tonight and no funeral arrangements will be made until their arrival there.

"Bunny," as he was generally known, would have been 21 years of age had he lived until next October and had many friends among the young people of the city. The bereaved family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Miss Della McPheeers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George McPheeers, residing about forty miles north of Aitkin, died at St. Joseph's hospital last night of tuberculosis. Miss McPheeers had been sick with the malady since last summer, having been an inmate of the hospital since September. A sister just left the hospital today after a successful operation for appendicitis. Funeral services will be held at Losey & Dean's undertaking parlors tomorrow forenoon, conducted by Rev. McLeod, followed by interment in Evergreen cemetery. The deceased was 20 years of age and a well known teacher in the Aitkin county schools.

The Juvenile concert band met all the trains during the afternoon and escorted the visitors to the headquarters in the Gardner block. It furnished fine music and Prof. Bartsch has reason to feel proud of the progress the boys have made under his tuition.

The work tonight will be under the charge of Great Sachem Dr. Thomas J. Reid, who will be great prophet on the degree team. He will be assisted by C. R. Sievers, W. C. Fust, H. A. Finlayson and Hans Hanson, all of Minneapolis, and by members of the local and visiting tribes.

Hoke Smith of Georgia

Distinguished Southerner Who, Though Not Actively a Candidate For the Presidency, Has Qualities That Demand Attention and Will Wear—Man of Giant Physique, Broad Culture and Lofty Ideals.

By JAMES A. EDGERTON.

WHY not a southern president? Aside from any question of party, would not such a consummation be a fitting pledge that sectionalism is forever ended and that the country is indissolubly one? Moreover, should not the generous north be the section to demand the placing of a southern man in the White House? Nothing could more touch the heart of the south or go further toward restoring mutual faith and good feeling. Have not the senseless partisanship and prejudice that would prevent this happy event at last burned themselves out?

Before the civil war the number of presidents was about equally divided between the two sections—eight from the south to seven from the north. It is only fair to say, however, that the southern occupants of the office were far and away more conspicuous and able than those from the north. Likewise their tenure of office was twice as long—approximately forty-nine years to twenty-four. The Virginia and Tennessee chief magistrates of those days were giants. Here are names to con-jure with:

Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Jackson. Very much of the world's history might be raked over without finding another such group. These five that belonged to the two wars with England and that ruled for forty years were tall of soul and far shining.

The other three southerners—Tyler, Polk and Taylor—were not so notable, former and by his own personal efforts swung his state to Cleveland when the chief politicians were to Hill. In 1839 he was unanimously elected president of the International Sunday School association.

Overwhelmingly Victorious.

His nomination for governor followed one of the hottest campaigns in the history of Georgia. Against Smith were some of the most distinguished citizens of the state who were struggling for the nomination. In addition he was opposed by the powerful railroad interests that had been running the politics of Georgia for years. Hoke Smith took a stand against corporation domination as unqualified and determined as that of La Follette in Wisconsin. He waged the battle for a year, going into every county. Despite all the powerful interests combined against him he was overwhelmingly victorious.

The recent triumph of the two cent fare was largely due to the efforts of Governor Smith. He also favored the prohibitory law which went into effect in Georgia the first of the year, one of the results of the remarkable temperance wave that has recently swept over the entire south. Moreover, Hoke Smith is an effective speaker, a man of broad culture, of clean life, of lofty ideals, of a rounded character and of a solid ability that have won the universal respect of his people. A man of that record and reputation is of presidential size, whether he lives in Georgia or Maine.

GOVERNOR HOKE SMITH.

but even they measured up very well with the northern antebellum presidents, as a glance at the list will show: The two Adamses, Van Buren, William Henry Harrison, Fillmore, Pierce, Buchanan. The north had great men in those days, but she elected mighty few of them to the presidency.

Since the war the south has had but one president, Andrew Johnson, and she was not proud of him. Neither was the north.

It must not be forgotten that the greatest of all the presidents, Abraham Lincoln, was born in the south.

Nor is it entirely beside the point to remark that Theodore Roosevelt is the son of a southern mother.

On this showing is the south not entitled to another trial? If we are really one people, why not be big enough and generous enough to show it? The war has been ended more than forty years. Why not have it ended in fact?

Noted Southern Candidate.

If there is to be a southern candidate, what more fitting than that he should fall from the Empire State of the South, Georgia? Despite all her great sons, including men like William H. Crawford, Alexander H. Stephens, Robert Toombs, John B. Gordon, Howell Cobb, Henry W. Grady, Joel Chandler Harris and Thomas E. Watson, Georgia has never furnished a president of the United States. In the person of her present governor, the Hon. Hoke Smith, she now has a candidate big enough to be considered aside from location and still bigger when to his own claims are added those of his section and his state.

Governor Smith is descended from the famous General Hoke on one side and from a New England educator on the other. He has been a distinguished lawyer and editor. He was in Cleveland's cabinet, but had such a lofty sense of duty and party loyalty that, although a gold man, he decided to support Bryan in 1896 and resigned his portfolio. Prior to his elevation to the cabinet he was an ardent tariff reporter and by his own personal efforts swung his state to Cleveland when the chief politicians were to Hill. In 1839 he was unanimously elected president of the International Sunday School association.

Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution and member of the Democratic national committee, was slated for the succession to the governorship, and rumor said that this was only to be a stepping stone to the senate. It was a beautiful plan, but something happened to it. The something was the Hon. Hoke Smith. After he got through the plan was not so lovely to look upon or would not have been if there had been enough left of it to be seen with the naked eye.

Joked With His First Name.

When Mr. Smith went into the cabinet the northern papers showed a disposition to regard him as a joke. They had all kinds of fun with his first name, playfully changing it to Hocus-pocus and other irreverent forms. It did not take long, however, to discover that the wearer of the name was a big man in his way, big enough to live down any name or any efforts of the funny men relative thereto. This fact dawned even on the jokesmiths, after which Mr. Smith was treated with respect. A man cannot help his name any more than he can help being fat or having warts. Considering its distinguished origin, Hoke is a very good name indeed. As for Smith, no one would think of reflecting on that any more than he would of reflecting on the attraction of gravitation. To paraphrase what Lincoln said of the common people, the Lord must love the Smiths—he made so many of them.

We hear much these days of various kinds of consciousness, class consciousness among the rest. What the Smiths need is a family consciousness or name consciousness that would cause them to stand together. The ardor for their common patronymic should so burn in their bosoms that it would consume to ashes all such minor differences as Smythe and Schmidt, especially Smythe. Any kind of consciousness that would obliterate Smythe should be hailed as a public benefactor. After the simplified spelling board finishes with such words as "tho" and "kist" it should get busy with Smythe and a few other proper names.

Marching Through Georgia.

When Hoke Smith was secretary of the interior he naturally appointed a large number of Georgians. It kept on till people from other states made remarks. Senator Voorhees of Indiana had a Hoosier friend that he wanted an office for, but so long as there were any unappointed applicants from Mr. Smith's own state he was in despair.

One day Voorhees walked dejectedly through the interior department whistling "Marching Through Georgia." The tune grated on Smith's sensitive ears, and he reproachfully said:

"What are you whistling that for?" "I just can't help it," explained Senator Voorhees. "Whenever I come through your department I feel as if I were marching through Georgia."

That day Voorhees' Indiana friend was appointed.

Physically Mr. Smith is a giant six feet and two inches in height and weighing over 200 pounds. His head, face and body all give the impression of massiveness.

Southern Legal Light.

He is only fifty-three years old, and as he is a man of iron constitution and of a long life he should have the best of his career ahead of him. He was educated by his father, a distinguished professor, still living, from whom he inherits his physical and some of his mental characteristics. The father is a cousin of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the celebrated head of the Christian Scientists, although he is not a believer in that faith. Hoke Smith was admitted to the bar at the age of eighteen and is today one of the most distinguished lawyers of the south.

Mrs. Smith, who is one of the most famous hostesses of Atlanta, is a daughter of Thomas R. R. Cobb, the Confederate general. A brother of Governor Smith married the daughter of a still more celebrated general, John B. Gordon.

Foe of Corporation Rule.

Examined from every possible standpoint, Mr. Smith seems an ideal candidate. Of fine appearance, an able lawyer, a forceful speaker of distinguished family, well educated, located in a section that deserves recognition, an uncompromising foe of corporation rule, a man who has shown his high loyalty to principle in many fights, his well rounded strength and availability appear the more he is studied. Despite these facts he is not actively a candidate. He shares the belief that a southern man cannot yet be elected president. It is only his peculiar merits and claims that have forced him upon the attention of the country, despite this old time prejudice and his own modesty.

In all candor it must be said that the shadows cast by coming events look more and more like the features of William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska. With most Democrats support of Bryan has grown into a habit. Besides, there is some poetic justice in the claim that so long as the country has adopted his principles they ought to adopt the man.

This is as it may be. Every one will have his own opinion about it, and only events will settle the issue. But whether in 1908 or later, keep your eye on Hoke Smith. Sectional prejudice will not last forever, and he has qualities in him that will wear.

FIGHT IN CONVENTION

Republican Factions in Lively Battle in Tennessee.

USED THEIR FISTS FREELY

Blackened Eyes and Bruised Faces Testify to the Fierceness of the Fray—One Man Broke Four Chairs Over Negro's Head.

Nashville, Tenn., March 26.—Republicans of Tennessee assembled here for a state convention. Black eyes, skinned heads and bruised faces testify to the riot that marked the gathering in the hall of the house of representatives at the capitol. In the list of casualties, Chairman Newell Sanders of the state executive committee figured prominently. His experience in the hall was one never to be forgotten by him, and to witnesses of the turbulent scene it seemed almost incredible that he suffered no real physical harm. As it was, he presented a sorry picture when he emerged from the veritable battle which occurred between the two factions, one supporting the interests of Congressman W. P. Brownlow, the other those of former Commissioner of Pensons H. Clay Evans. The Brownlow forces wanted W. J. Oliver of Knoxville for national committee; the Evans men favored the candidacy of Congressman N. W. Hale for that position. Incidentally, Richard Austin is a candidate for congress against Mr. Hale. By sheer force of numbers and fighting powers the Brownlow-Oliver-Austin crowd took and held the hall. They found a few guards present, placed there by the state committee, but ejected them without trouble. They held the field until what they claimed to be the assembly hour and then, Chairman Newell Sanders, an Evans man, not being present they organized without him. Hardly had the chairman, W. L. Davis of Claiborne, rapped for order, however, before the Evans-Sanders-Hale charge was on.

Used Regular Football Tactics.

With regular football tactics they started for the rostrum. Before the Oliver squad could pull itself together, Sanders had reached the platform and was proceeding to call the convention to order again. But he did not get far before the Oliver forces came to. Then backward and forward the struggling mass surged, Sanders being the rock around which the storm raged most furiously. His guards could not stem the tide, however, and he was literally torn from their grasp, his coat and hat gone, his shirt split and ragged, and even his trousers badly disarranged. At length he was bodily lifted from his feet and carried behind the speaker's stand onto a veranda. It looked as if he might be thrown from this high elevation, but better counsel prevailed and he was released.

While all this was going on, fights innumerable were in progress and the hall was a bedlam. Then came the police and something resembling order was restored. In the course of the riots, R. T. Cameron of Chattanooga, a Brownlow man, is said to have broken four folding chairs over the head of a negro delegate who had given him some "back talk."

With the police looking on, the Oliver-Brownlow men went into convention, the Evans crowd offering no further interference than yells and jeers at the speakers.

SEVERELY CENSURED.

But Committee Would Not Impeach Judge Wilfley.

Washington, March 26.—The subcommittee of the house judiciary committee, appointed to investigate charges against Judge L. R. Wilfley of the United States court for China at Shanghai on charges of misconduct in office preferred by a number of American lawyers residing in Shanghai, submitted its report to the full committee.

The report does not recommend impeachment, but severely censures Judge Wilfley for harshness on the bench and ignorance of the law. The presentation of the report precipitated a warm debate in the full committee, some of the members declaring the opinion that Wilfley should be impeached. Mr. Clayton of Alabama entered a motion for such impeachment and served notice that if the committee failed to accept it he would move it on the floor of the house. No action was taken by the full committee.

It was learned through Representative Denby of Michigan, who throughout the investigation has acted as counsel to Judge Wilfley, that Judge Wilfley insists on either impeachment proceedings or complete exoneration at the hands of the committee and that he was not disposed to accept for a moment as conclusive the action of the sub-committee in finding him guilty of charges sufficient to warrant impeachment proceedings, yet condemning him in part for his conduct on the bench. It is understood that Representative Denby has asked permission to appear before the committee to speak against the adoption of the Moon report.

Prairie Fire in South Dakota.

Chamberlain, S. D., March 26.—The most disastrous prairie fire this section has known in many years started between Pukwana and Kimball. A very high wind carried it over a large area and it is still traveling southeast.

Iowa Bankers Threatened.

Ottumwa, Ia., March 26.—Dr. A. O. Cover and Frank Llewellyn, two of the directors of the Farmers and Drovers' State bank of Seymour, closed by a state examiner recently when Cashier Leroy Ware was found short $40,000 in his accounts, have received threatening letters, presumably from miners who lost their savings in the bank failure. The men are threatened with death unless all depositors are paid in full in four days. Cashier Ware is now in the penitentiary and the bank is not in condition to meet its obligations.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, added by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, teachers and writers on Medical Medicina who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised. A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised, not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, soreness, sore throat, lassitude, angina-coughs, and all those wasting fevers which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.
